

Employee connectivity

We're committed to a culture of connectivity where employees feel connected to and contribute to our shared mission and goals.

Connectivity means a basis and network to access the right person, at the right time, to share and give knowledge, build understanding, further inclusion, and solve problems to improve business outcomes and the employee experience.

We are committed to a culture of connectivity independent of employee's physical working election and location.

Global new hire onboarding

Building connections resource page

Employee resource groups

Facilitate new connections via Donut app

Mentorship programs and resources

High potential program

Well-being programs

Slack channel interest groups

Learning for all programs and upskilling

DEI training & insights from a global advisory committee

Global morale & teambuilding

All hands, open forums & transparent communication